KELLY HAWLEY

FOUNDER OF WARRIOR BRIDE MINISTRIES

Kelly Hawley is a Ministerial Trauma Specialist, Founder and Executive Director of Warrior Bride Ministries. Kelly holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Winthrop University. She has served individuals and families impacted by childhood exploitation for over 17 years. While ministering to survivors with similar stories as her own, she noticed the Lord was sending many who had been trafficked. This exposed Kelly to the bigger picture of ritual abuse and the lack of help available to trafficked survivors and those with dissociative identity disorder. After seeking training and mentorship from experts in the field, Kelly founded Warrior Bride Ministries.

Kelly embraces the call to unite the body of Christ to become educated and involved in the rescue and healing of our children. She fosters this growth through ministry partnerships, hosting Counting the Cost conferences, and leading presentations at safe houses and other ministries. Her heart's cry is for all believers to embrace Isaiah 61 by becoming equipped to bind up the brokenhearted and set the captives free.

Kelly enjoys continuing education opportunities as Yahweh continues to reveal the enemy's blueprint of war and His victory plan for survivors. Kelly is honored to walk alongside survivors and see how Yahweh moves on their behalf, bringing His healing and deliverance to each survivor in ways that are custom made just for them.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the battlefield of helping survivors of childhood exploitation, trafficking, ritual abuse, and mind control. This topic is not easy but be encouraged! It is filled with many moments of joy, success, and miracles. It truly is the journey of a lifetime, and I invite you ask yourself, “Was I born for such a time as this?”

This booklet is designed to help equip you with the knowledge to live sealed up so that the enemy doesn’t wreak havoc on your life. As you learn the schemes of the enemy and the truth about the end time army Satan is building by using trauma to program survivors, I want you to understand how to stay armored up so that his attempts to attack you do not knock you out of the fight.

We need you and most importantly, our children need you. If you feel called to join the fight against childhood exploitation, it is critical that you build your firm foundation in Him so that you are fighting from His place of victory.

Living a Sealed-Up Life is a teaching that Yahweh gave me several years ago when we started doing conferences. I have found it to be one of the most valuable resources we offer to those who want to get involved. Think of it as putting the oxygen mask on yourself before you put it on your loved ones if there is an emergency on an airplane. It really is that important.

BUT THE LORD IS WORTHY OF TRUST; HE WILL MAKE YOU FIRM AND GUARD YOU FROM THE EVIL ONE.
2 THESSALONIANS 3:3

SEALED

The Greek word for “sealed” means to stamp, seal up or stop, such as with a signet or private mark for security or preservation.

When God’s people are sealed, the stamp or imprint of Christ’s character in the mind is set, which is a sign of God’s approval and protection from the influence of Satan. This imprint is also the completion of the engraving of the law on the heart as promised in the new covenant. Christ’s character is revealed in His law. Those who are sealed and reflect Christ’s character must, by definition, will also be upholding His Word. (Hebrews 10:14-18) (2 Corinthians 3:3).

Revelation reveals a struggle between a beast from the sea and God’s people. Those who worship the beast receive the mark of the beast in their hand or forehead and those who follow God receive the seal of God in their forehead. (Revelation 13:16, Revelation 7:3, Deut. 10:1, Isaiah 8:16, Dan. 7:25)

Remember, whether you are sealed is determined during your lifetime. The submission to the Holy Spirit and obedience to God’s Word must be shown while here on earth. This is the time to build character, be molded and sealed into place. We must examine each area of our life and invite Him into any hidden places.

EXAMINE ME, GOD, AND KNOW MY HEART;
TEST ME, AND KNOW MY THOUGHTS. SEE IF THERE IS IN ME ANY HURTFUL WAY AND LEAD ME ALONG THE ETERNAL WAY.
PSALM 139: 23-24

THE 144,000 “FIRSTFRUITS”

The prophecy of the Three Angels' Messages in Revelation describes a group of 144,000 who are sealed (Rev. 7, 14). The term “firstfruits” (Rev. 14:4) is used to describe those sealed, emphasizing spiritual growth. The sealing process is likened to the process of growing up like a plant, reaching maturity, and thus being ready for harvest. When a plant matures, its characteristics have been established.

The time of deciding whether to be a potato or a tomato is certainly past. The height, shape, color, size, and fruit reveal exactly what type of plant it is.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SEALED

“DO NOT HARM THE LAND OR THE SEA OR THE TREES UNTIL WE HAVE SEALED THE SERVANTS OF OUR GOD ON THEIR FOREHEADS!” REVELATION 7:3

- Servants of God – True servants of God don't follow their own will, but the will of their Master. We can rest in Yahweh's protection if we are living surrendered to His will for our lives. When we are sealed, the joy that we experience from having an intimate relationship with our Master causes us to naturally want to follow His will. I am not saying it will always be easy, but we should have peace that surpasses understanding during the difficult times knowing that we get to live a surrendered life to the One who loves us more than we can imagine.
- Sealed in their foreheads – The seal being on our forehead shows us that our mind is the focus. What and how we think influences our choices. We strengthen our weapons of warfare when we keep our focus on the Word of God. We are instructed to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ because our thoughts lead to our actions which produces our fruit. When we keep our thoughts on the things of God, we will recognize the prompting of the Holy Spirit when we have stepped outside of His will and be able to correct it quickly.

- Father's name on forehead – The way they think, or their character, is patterned after God's character. Revelation 14:1 says, "Then I looked, and there was the Lamb standing on Mount Tziyon; and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads." Would a stranger who see us out in public, or family that sees us behind closed doors agree that our character is patterned after God's character? How about those driving with us on a long trip in heavy traffic or waiting behind us in the checkout line? These are some ways we can reflect on our character and look for areas that need work.
- Not defiled with women / Virgins – They are true to their "husband", Christ. They reject idols and have not joined with earthly powers when they contradict Christ's commands, as has the woman called Babylon and her harlot daughters (apostate churches). It is certainly challenging to be living in the end times and have to navigate a world where sin and witchcraft are in our face everywhere we turn. This is an area where we need to often inspect the fruit of our character. What idols do we have that get in the way of us spending daily time in the secret place? We cannot be naive or let our guard down. Are we keeping our order of responsibilities straight? God first, family second, and then ministry. We can trust that Yahweh is enough to fill in the gap and take care of every survivor that calls on Him. We are to walk alongside them as His hands and feet. We can be a tangible form of His love for them, but we cannot let our ministry take us away from our first love. We need balance. If we spend all of our time serving others but putting off our devotional time and quality family time, then we have to ask the hard question of "is my ministry an idol?” Remember, we are in a war and the enemy is not resting while we take a break. Ask yourself at these times if you feel secure in knowing that if the enemy sends a flaming arrow in that moment, will it have a way to burn you? Do you have idols that will give the enemy access? Most of us do well when we are around others or engaged in ministry, but what about the times when we are exhausted and need to rest? There will always be a need to be met, but we must also be proactive about preventing burnout. We can trust that Yahweh has them.

I strongly encourage you to have a good self-care routine where you can be refreshed and filled up on a regular basis. Rest is a gift that Yahweh gives us in His command to keep the Sabbath. I believe it is part of his battle plan that we steward our downtime in a way that guards against idols creeping in undetected. Cultivate a lifestyle of rest where you can experience His fullness of joy and commune with Him.

For we are not struggling against human beings,
but against the rulers,
authorities and cosmic powers governing this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm.

Ephesians 6:12

- Follow the lamb (14:4) – Sealed-up believers imitate Christ. They study what Christ is doing through all the various phases of His ministry and follow Him, cooperating with the process through faith. They believe He is ministering for them, and they keep their eyes focused on Him.
- No guile in mouth (14:5) – The word translated to guile means deceit, trick, or decoy. Sealed-up believers speak straightforwardly, truthfully, and simply. The things they profess are the same things they believe and practice. They do not hide anything about their true character, and they do not misrepresent the character of Christ.
- Without fault (14:5) – Those who are sealed are without blame or unblemished. They have stopped hiding their faults, and God has made them blameless. Their consciences are clear. We all fall short, but when those who are sealed sin, they know that they must confess and not hide it. There is no shame in repentance. It is a sign of maturity and leads to restoration with the Father.
- Firstfruits (14:5) – Sealed-up believers have grown up spiritually and their characters have reached maturity, received the latter rain and are ready for the harvest.

GROWTH QUESTIONS

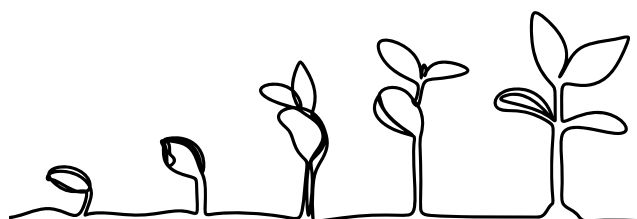

Can you say you are surrendered to the Lord?

Are you willing to surrender your will to the Lord?

Does He have a right to expect us to surrender to Him?

What is He asking you to surrender today?

Would you be willing to ask Him today to search you and show you if anything is hidden? It might not be a sin; it might be something that is not His will for you because He knows where He wants to take you.

THE REVEAL

When Yahweh reveals what you need to surrender...

DON'T:

- Hold on to it
- Justify it
- Rationalize it
- Be in agreement with it

Surrendering is not easy, it can mean giving up your rights, opportunities, comforts, habits, and more.

When a general surrenders, it means defeat. He gives up all rights and liberties, but for a child of God, it means finding your life.

For whoever is bent on saving his [temporal] life [his comfort and security here] shall lose it [eternal life]; and whoever loses his life [his comfort and security here] for My sake shall find it [life everlasting]. Matthew 16:25

Yahweh wants to bless you and for you to enjoy a part of Christian life few will ever experience. Unfortunately, most will never surrender and will allow disobedience to block their blessing. What would He do if you did surrender? What would He do in your family, in those around you?

To go to new depths with Him we must do everything in our power to stay in a state of repentance and surrender to His will. This does not mean that we are perfect; it means that we are willing. We are willing to trust Him when we can't see the next step or when it makes no sense at all to our carnal minds. It means that when He says to put something down, we do it. When He says go here or go there, we go.

Yeshua is our best example of surrender.

During Yeshua's last hours of life, He said, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me, but not my will, but Your will be done." He was willing to submit to Yahweh's will.

Ephesians 4:30 says, "And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God [do not offend or vex or sadden Him], by Whom you were sealed (marked, branded as God's own, secured) for the day of redemption (of final deliverance through Christ from evil and the consequences of sin)."

When we are submitted to Yahweh's will, we can know we are not grieving the Holy Spirit. Visualize a person stiffening their neck or hardening their heart. That is a picture of someone who is proud, stubborn, rebellious, and determined to do something their own way. We must be aware and guard our hearts. Persistent rejection of the Holy Spirit leads to a "searing" of the conscience, making it callous and insensitive, eventually rendering a person incapable of hearing the Holy Spirit anymore. Grieving the Holy Spirit would mean we do not appreciate or allow this type of work in our lives. But this is life changing work that we all need in order to live a sealed-up life.

HEAVENLY COMPETITION

Yahweh and Satan are constantly vying for our love and devotion but for very different reasons. Yahweh sincerely loves us and wants a relationship with us. Satan on the other hand is incapable of love. He is the master of deception and can offer thrilling and tantalizing experiences as a means of luring man away from God.

Can Satan access a believer? Can Christians be demonized? Many Christians believe that a believer cannot be possessed, they don't have to worry about any kind of satanic involvement in their lives. If this was the case, we would not be given so many admonitions in scripture to resist the devil and not give him a foothold (Ephesians 4:26-27, 1 Peter 4:8-9). We would not have been instructed to put on the spiritual armor to stand successfully against our adversary if there was no danger from him (Ephesians 6:11-17). The truth is the blood of Yeshua cleanses us from all sin. We are responsible for riding ourselves of those behaviors and thought patterns that make us vulnerable to attack and influence by evil spiritual beings (2 Corinthians 10:5). This is part of the sanctification process for which God thoroughly equips us (2 Peter 1:3).

Instead of asking if a believer can be demon possessed, we ought to ask, 'can a Christian be tempted, have a worldly mindset, be taken advantage of by the enemy, subject to division, give way to pride, suffer with fear, rejection, unforgiveness, bitterness, anger, shame, guilt, and condemnation?' These are all symptoms that indicate the enemy has a foot in the door and is hindering the work that Yahweh wants to do within that person to give him a fruitful and abundant life and bring glory to Himself (John 10:10, Romans 3:23).

Yahweh, Adam, and Eve are the only ones that came into this life with a clean spiritual slate. When they chose to act on his word instead of Yahweh's word, it caused things to change, and Satan gained dominion over them (Romans 6:16). This not only affected their eternal destiny, but it gave Satan an internal rule over part of man's soul known as the flesh. The flesh is so devoted to evil and self-seeking pleasures that scripture says it cannot please God (Romans 8:5-8). Even when born again and we are transferred into the Kingdom of God, the flesh remains as an internal dynamo thirsting for evil. While the flesh no longer has absolute authority over man's soul, it is generally the source of evil connections in a believer's life (Romans. 7:21-25; Galatians 5:16-17).

HE HAS RESCUED US FROM THE DOMAIN OF DARKNESS AND TRANSFERRED US INTO THE KINGDOM OF HIS DEAR SON.
COLOSSIANS 3:13

DEMONIC STRONGHOLDS

Three types of demonic strongholds:

Lower-level spirits or demons working in people through ungodly character traits and ongoing patterns of sinful indulgence.

Higher-level spirits or demons gain a foothold when a person's ungodly behavior is deeply rooted in their heart or deliberate dedications to entities are made. The effects are more powerful and enduring.

Generational inheritances are established through specific curses uttered against an individual or family and/or deep patterns of unrepentant sin continue through successive generations. Scripture tells us the sins of the forefathers are passed down to the third and fourth generations.

Exodus 20:5 says, "You are not to bow down to them or serve them; for I, Adonai your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sins of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me".

One of the most obvious ways these spirits get a foothold is through being involved in occult activity. The focus of many occultic activity is to gain knowledge or supernatural experiences. Yahweh made it clear that these things are detestable to Him (Deuteronomy 18:10-12).

When you enter Satan's camp, you open yourself up to attack. Tarot cards, seances, horoscopes, and psychics are examples of how you can open the door to the demonic.

Idolatry

Idolatry is not only pagan idols, but it can also be idolatry of the heart and that can be just as offensive to Yahweh. Ezekiel 14:2-8 tells us that God will set His face against anyone practicing idolatry of the heart. This can include canceling blessings and not responding to prayers. Even high priority issues such as family, job, ministry, education, or health can become idols if we are not willing to sacrifice or put them as a priority over being obedient to Yahweh. Other behaviors such as appearance, performance, orderliness, or control can also creep into idol status. Other examples include addiction to drugs, alcohol, nicotine, gambling, sex, pornography, food, work and busyness.

The most frequent idols are those that arise out of our world system particularly money and material gain. Money is such a powerful and alluring commodity capable of providing security, prestige, and entertainment that even Christians are apt to forget that Yahweh is infinitely more capable of supplying these for us and promises to do so if we make Him and His righteousness priority in our lives (Matthew 6:33, Philippians 4:19). If we choose to trust in money over Yahweh to supply our needs, we are engaged in the idolatry of mammon. Scripture clearly states we cannot serve God and Mammon (Matthew 6:24) and equates the quest for material possessions with idolatry (Colossians. 3:5-6). Because idols of the heart can be so insidious, we would all do well to examine our lives and take stock of what is important to us. If any of these cannot be laid aside to do God's will, it needs to be recognized as an idol of the heart.

Religion

While we can readily recognize many false religions of the world, the Christian church is not immune to Satan's deception. The way to evaluate if it is from God is to find it in scripture and to determine what kind of fruit is being produced in the life of the person teaching it.

Rationalizing or allowing human reasoning to supersede the Word of God is one way Satan infiltrates and weakens the Church. Scripture clearly says that the depths of wisdom and knowledge revealed in God's Word is beyond human comprehension and reasoning of even the wisest men are useless and foolish in comparison (Roman 11:33-36; 1 Corinthians 3:19-20). Yet some individuals upon encountering parts of the Bible they believe cannot possibly be taken literally feel they are doing the church a service by using human wisdom or reasoning and coming up with an alternative that makes more sense to them. This is the same thing that occurred in the garden when Satan said that what God really said was... (Gen 3:1, Romans 6:16). Allowing this without testing the spirit by making sure what is being said is actually what the Word says can put us in the same snare. Faith in God's Word is what is a defining characteristic of a true Christian. It binds us to God (Ephesians 2:8, Hebrews 11:1-6, 1 Peter 1:6-7). Doubting opens us up to attack (Romans 14:23, Ephesians 6:16, 1 John 5:4).

Legalism

Christ came not to abolish the law but to fulfill it. In doing so He made a way for us to come back into right standing with Yahweh through His shed blood on the cross and our choosing to receive that gift. He also tells us if we love Him, we will keep His commandments. It's important for us to understand that the entire Bible is one continuous story and relevant today. We cannot obtain our salvation by any other means than the shed blood of Christ, but we are not to stop there. His word is active and tells us faith without works is dead. Do not let Satan rob you from all that He has for us while we are here on earth. He has set appointed times for us to commune with Him, ways that we can go deeper with Him. Although these are not a Salvation issue and not meant to enter legalism, they are commandments to help us be more like him and close to Him.

Division

God desires His body to be united in one faith with one mind and purpose to guard against division based on foolishness and petty differences.

Rebellion

Willful disobedience is turning away from God, failing to believe Him or His promises, or not treating Him with reverence. The most obvious is turning to other gods like The Israelites turned to other gods repeatedly before entering the promised land. Less subtle is the person who puts his will above God's will as Moses did when he struck the rock in the wilderness or turning to a human role model like the Corinthians did. Any of these actions represent lies and temptations from the enemy and put out a welcome mat. God equates rebellion to divination and idolatry (1 Samuel 15:23)

Deception

Lies and deception open doors

Ananias and Sapphira lied to Yahweh about the nature of the gift they brought to Him. In this case scripture says Satan filled their hearts to the lie against the Holy Spirit again confirming the origin of lies. Although death is not always the consequence, Yahweh has repeatedly said that He will shorten the lives of those who are deceitful (Psalm 52, 55, Proverbs 21:28) He abhors all forms of deceit and His response to it is usually severe. At the very least the deceitful person misses out on Gods Blessings.

Pride

Pride was the original sin of Lucifer and is a prime characteristic he endeavors to establish in the hearts of mankind to draw them away from God.

Man becomes increasingly vulnerable to being prideful as he obtains success in life and is lured by Satan to take all the credit instead of recognizing God as the source of everything. By not giving credit to God Satan wins and gets a foothold.

Anger and Hate

Although anger is a natural emotion, but when the flesh is in control of one's life anger can erupt into jealousy, pride, and selfishness. This is not righteous anger.

Yahweh warns us to not let the sun go down upon our anger. I believe this is because it prolongs our period of vulnerability to a sinful reaction. Therefore, we are instructed to resolve our anger quickly.

Blood shedding

As in Cain and David we see that taking one's life results in a curse for the rest of one's life. There are consequences even if one is forgiven through receiving Christ. Many times, we see the generational curse of murder and death in those that come to see us. These can be broken but until someone pursues a cleansing of the blood line you typically will see a curse flow down the family tree.

Violence

Mistreatment of others - if one exhibits violence towards another person this gives evidence that Satan already has a foothold in his life. In scripture, God repeatedly prohibits violence against the innocent and warns that those who do not obey His commandments would be cursed.

Sexual Sin

As followers of Christ, His spirit becomes one with our spirit and our bodies become the temple of the Holy Spirit as well as integral parts of Christ who is one with the Father. Many fail to understand the uniqueness and sanctity of the union when two individuals engage in intercourse. Scripturally it is clear that two become one flesh. Just as the spiritual unity between Christ and the Church is between Him and His bride, so too is sexual unity only between husband and wife.

When the true nature of these unions is grasped, we can't escape the reality that illicit sex brings God into an ungodly union. This is part of the reason acts such as adultery, rape, incest, homosexuality, and bestiality are so grievous within Christians. God does not tolerate the defilement of His temple and has proclaimed a curse in the form of severe punishment upon all that do it. Although sometimes when there is a true repentant heart, grace is extended.

Perversion is one of the most common principalities we deal with when doing ministry sessions. It has a stronghold on many people in the world today, but with repentance and obedience we can take authority over it, and He will set the captives free from it.

Unforgiving heart

Scripture tells us that if we do not forgive, He cannot forgive us. Forgiveness is a decision to extend grace. You do not have to let the person back in your life unless Yahweh specifically asks you to do so. His ways are higher than our ways and He knows what we need, but we can start by just choosing to lay that burden down. I have never seen Him ask someone to allow an abusive person back in. We can trust Him to protect us and bring good out of the situation when we choose to forgive. Forgiveness is not a feeling. You may have to make the decision over and over again for a while until you have fully released the pain and unforgiveness. By choosing forgiveness, you are deciding that Yahweh is your defender, and you trust Him to bring justice in His way and His timing.

If a client is not ready to forgive, we are unable to move forward in ministry sessions because the legal right is present. Unforgiveness keeps the door open for the enemy and it would do more harm to move forward before they are ready to forgive.

Love of the world

A need for internal submission and external actions is crucial. Just as a soldier engaged in active service to his country separates himself from the affairs of life so our calling as ambassadors for the kingdom of God requires diligent separation from the things of this world. Paul tells us to consider ourselves dead to them. The reason for such a strict call to separation is that even by dabbling around the worldly activities whether in real life or vicariously through TV, internet, or fantasies of our mind we enter Satan's playground. Once our appetite is whetted to desire, Satan has won victory and gained a stronger inroad into our lives. Each of these strongholds take the place of Yahweh who can bring deep healing to our emotional wounds.

The Spirit of Adonai Elohim is upon me, because Adonai has anointed me to announce good news to the poor.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted;
to proclaim freedom to the captives,
to let out into light those bound in the dark;
2 to proclaim the year of the favor of Adonai and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all who mourn,
3 yes, provide for those in Tziyon who mourn, giving them garlands instead of ashes,
the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
a cloak of praise instead of a heavy spirit,
so that they will be called oaks of righteousness planted by Adonai, in which he takes pride.

Isaiah 61:1-3

COME OUT OF HER MY PEOPLE!

This is the cry of Yahweh to His end times saints.

Then I heard another voice out of heaven say:

“My people, come out of her!
so that you will not share in her sins,
so that you will not be infected by her plagues.

Revelation 18:4

A quick definition is a global religious, economic and political antichrist system that is confused with both good and evil which enslaves the mind and lives of humans.

What does it mean to come out? It starts as a matter of the heart. When issues of the heart are addressed and dealt with the rest will take care of itself.

When Yahweh urges His people to come out of the world He's talking about believers of God in the Bible. When they learn who they are supposed to be in Biblical terms and embrace the vision in their hearts and minds they will automatically start coming out of Babylon by first putting the leaven out of themselves.

WHO DOES THE BIBLE SAY WE ARE?

The Believer is in the world but not of the world

I am no longer in the world. They are in the world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, guard them by the power of your name, which you have given to me, so that they may be one, just as we are. John 17:11

The “called-out ones” (ecclesia)

Called out from what? We are called to stop being controlled by the world, the flesh, and the devil.

Holy and set apart (Kadosh)

Set apart from what? We are called to be set apart from controlling influences of this world, flesh, and Satan.

Believers are foreigners, strangers, pilgrims in this world. They are part of another Kingdom and sojourners passing through enroute to our eternal Kingdom (Hebrews 11:13, 1 Peter 2:11).

The Saints are to be salt and light in this dark rotten world (Mathew 5:13-14). That means what they do and say must be different from this world. Followers of Yahweh are to come out and be separated and cannot be a friend of this world and Elohim at the same time (2 Corinthians 6:14-17).

A CALL TO ACTION

What then shall we do?

- Repent: Everyone who keeps sinning is violating Torah — indeed, sin is violation of Torah. 1 John 3:4
- Humble and Turn: then, if my people, who bear my name, will humble themselves, pray, seek my face and turn from their evil ways, I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin and heal their land (2 Chronicles 7:14).
- Return: Here is what Adonai says: “Stand at the crossroads and look; ask about the ancient paths, ‘Which one is the good way? Take it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, ‘We will not take it (Jeremiah 6:16). No, but my people have forgotten me and offer incense to nothings. This causes them to stumble as they walk the ancient paths; they leave the highway to walk on side-trails (Jeremiah 18:15).

PRACTICAL DAILY ACTION POINTS

Start each day submitting your will to our King. Invite Him to come and instruct you as you go about your day.

Commune with Him. Share the small things with Him, invite Him to be a part of your daily routine, talk to Him when you're washing dishes, waiting to pick up your child from school or sitting on your porch. One of my favorite times to commune with Yahweh is when I'm taking an evening walk. Being in nature has a way of quieting our mind and shifting our focus to His creation and all He has done for us.

Dance with Him. He is our Bridegroom.

Feed on His Word. Sealed-up believers spend time daily in His word. They are hungry for what He wants to share with them each day. Use this time to stir up your faith, encourage your soul, and ask for your marching orders.

Pray and petition in the courts of heaven. We have seen so many people set free through going to the courts of heaven. He is our just and righteous Judge.

Forgive and repent often.

Break vows and soul ties. Renounce and come out of agreement with word curses, vows, and ungodly soul ties.

SPIRITUAL BOOTCAMP

To go to new depths with Him we must do everything in our power to stay in a state of repentance and surrender of our will to Him. This does not mean we are perfect; it means we are willing.

Although it can seem overwhelming to go through the process of getting the world out of us, we have the perfect example in Yeshua. Even though Yeshua was Yahweh's perfect son He learned obedience through surrendering His will to Yahweh's. It's in the struggle and hardship that we grow muscle, learn skills, and realize He's all we need. It's in these times that we can learn to take more territory internally and externally for the Lord.

Our culture wants to avoid pain and wants everything now. We are always looking for a quick fix because we have a culture of rescuing ourselves from pain, but it's in the pain that we get motivated. When pain is great it will motivate us to change. When we have not built the spiritual muscle in surrendering and then we show up for battle, we do not have staying power. We lose faith and focus. Yahweh wants us to mature and toughen up so that we can be useable for His Kingdom.

"Let us rejoice in our suffering that creates endurance and maturity" (Romans 5:3).

As we develop patience and stop giving up the battle so easily, we will mature and start to look at our hope from an eternal perspective. Yahweh knows our weak spots, and so does Satan, the only ones that don't are us. We are the last ones to know the state of our heart Jeremiah. 17:9 tells us that man's heart is the most deceitful of all things.

Christ is our model. He said before the cross that the devil came to kill Him, but he had no claim on Him, no power over Him, nothing in common with Him and no place in Him. He wants to move everything out of us that would give Satan a legal right to gain a foothold.

Our decision to surrender goes beyond us as individuals. As a church body, we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against powers and principalities and spiritual wickedness. Territorial spirits can only be brought down through repentance by a large number of people. It is time for us to rise up and take back the territory the enemy has gained through infiltrating the church and lulling the saints to sleep.

Judgment will first come to the house of the Lord. We are moving into a new phase, out of the church age and into the Kingdom age that will take us into the Millennial age. There is a separation of the wheat and the tare within the church occurring while at the same we have a lot of baby Christians refusing to mature. Yahweh is trying to get us ready. The biggest test of all time will be the mark of the beast. His goal is to get us equipped to be a church that will not love our life unto death. It's going to take great maturity to not be part of this world system and trust God for everything.

He's going to shake everything that can be shaken. Everything is exposed so the only thing that remains is the Kingdom.

Daniel, Shadrack, Meshack, and Abednego are great examples of those who did not give into the world and although they were tested, they came out on top. Daniel became second in charge, the others were not touched by the flames, and everyone repented and gave God the glory upon seeing Him move in protecting them. If only a few were needed to change a territory they would not have had to go through the persecution because they were praying, fasting, and standing.

We are currently at a stalemate with not enough people getting their lives cleaned up and joining in the battle. Just like SRA victims we must look at all the parts of our heart behind the walls we have put up both in us and our nation.

We are in a dog fight and too many want to make Yeshua an image that scripture does not support. He is a gentleman, and we must invite Him into every part and change to the likeness of Him and His Holiness. The protection is in the commandments, and we must change to win.

Our sin is destructive, and it blocks Christ, and it causes the little ones to stumble and the mind control victims not to be harvested because we don't want to look at the deeper things of God. We want to stay infants but when man matures, he takes a different tone with his father.

Luke warmness will no longer be allowed – they will not be able to stand – they'll be weaned out.

We have two underutilized powerful weapons

Our Will- There is a battle over the allegiance of our Will. Satan tries to shatter our will as early as he can which is why sexual abuse for the young is so rampant. If he can break our will then he wins until a part of us responds to the call of Yeshua.

Authority- Scripture tells us that the earth moans and groans waiting for the sons and daughters of Elohim to know who they are. We have been given authority but rarely use it.

We were born for such a time as this. Together in unity in Christ we will overcome.

This is a hard message, but His love prepares us.

Are you preparing to never deny Jesus no matter what?

This message is not for everyone, I'm speaking to those that would hear it because there is a group that knows the truth.

Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil
day, and having done
all, to stand firm.
Ephesians 6:13
